AWARDS

On Friday, November 30, 1956, Mr. Peoples gave some very important facts about soil conservation. This very enjoyable talk was presented in the assembly program. Along with his talk he presented awards for the best essays written on "Why We Should Study Water And Soil Conservation In Our Public Schools." From Lyons High School 1st prize went to Jimmy Branch, 2nd prize to Sandra Brown, and 3rd prize to Lynette Fulford. The above students in the same order won the county contest. Jimmy Branch was awarded 1st place in the district and his essay entered the state contest.

DISTRICT ONE-ACT PLAY

The district One-Act Play will be "The Running Tide." Try-outs selected for the cast: Audrey Williams, Judy Ann Dolamore, Tom Fanning, and Alton James, with Martha Parker and Bobby Kemp as alternates. Martha Parker will serve as stage manager.

Excited man calling Doctor:
Come quick, my wife was sleeping with her mouth open and a mouse ran in it.
Doctor: Hold a piece of cheese over it until I get there. (The doctor arrived and to his amazement found the man waving a fish over her mouth. Frantically he said "Mico don't like fish."
Man: Excitedly. I know but I have to get the cat out first."

Where Are Last Years Seniors?

Perhaps some of you have been wondering what became of the 1955-56 seniors. There were very many progressive seniors in the '55 class. Some are attending college to further their education. Others are working, shall we say, for our Uncle Sam. A few decided to enter matrimony. My!!!

Betty Page, Wayne Smith, Fan Price, and Susan Jones chose Teachers College.

Elaine Wilkes, Ken Youmans, Ben Jack McDilda, and Dorothy Keen preferred South Georgia College in Douglas. Here they all seem to be one big happy family.

Two of our graduates, George Lankford and Vernon Kennedy, entered the University of Georgia to become famous lawyers, so I'm sure we'll be hearing more about them.

Kenny Browning, one of the more distinguished members of the 56 class chose dentistry as his profession. He is attending Mercer University.

Judy Jarriell is also attending Mercer.

Judy Clifton and Molly Mulling are attending Southern Business College with one thought in mind, and that is "being a perfect secretary."

Jimmy Price, one of the well-liked seniors is enrolled at Truett McConnell College. He is studying the ministry.

Faye Starr is at Middle Georgia College, studying hard, I'm sure.

Florida State College accepted Gail Trapnell, one of the more studious members of the class.

Ann Oliver is studying to be a lab technician at Weselyn College in Macon.

LATE BASKETBALL SCORES

*TEAM	GIRLS	BOYS
*Toombs Central	33	49
*Lyons	24	32
*Collins	56	70
*Lyons	41	35

MRS. AARON'S EIGHTH GRADE ROOM

Mrs. Aaron's room drew names Tuesday morning. It was decided that each home room would have a separate party.

Our history class has enjoyed making projects this past six weeks on some of Georgia's Firsts.

We are wishing all a Very Merry Christmas.

Those aiding Uncle Sam in the various branches of service are: Frank Kight, Aubrey Anderson, Gary Anderson, Sammy Craft, Charles Driggers, Bobby Hardeman, Walter Harden, Charles NeeSmith, Charlie Palmer, and Madison Smith.

The students who chose matrimony as their destiny are:

Betty Borland, who decided to follow a service man. LaFay Morris did the same. Elvis Futch snatched one of the 56 senior class girls from us.

The remainder of the Senior Class holds various jobs in this and surrounding sections.

From all appearances, this seems to have been a successful class.

LET'S SUPPORT OUR BASKETBALL TEAM. THEY CAN WIN WITH US BEHIND THEM.

KEYHOLE KAPERS

Lynette F. has so many boy-friends this year that she can't make up her mind which one is the one!!!

Whose red sweater has Pat B. been wearing to school? Could it be Don M.?????

Looks as though Florence R. will have a busy time Christmas keeping all of her boyfriends separated. Seems they could have come home at different times, doesn't it Flor.?

Where do we see Billy B.'s car parked most of the night every night?????

Olivia D., whose pick-up truck were you in Tuesday night at the Snack Ship??? Was it that cute little red-headed senior????

Becky Y. seems to like the Jr. and Senior boys. Wasn't it Blackie D. she went skating with Saturday night?????

Congratulations Shelby Cook on receiving that pretty engagement ring!!

Whose '55 Chevrolet has been sitting in front of Betty Ann M.'s house lately? Is he from Oak Park?

Blackie D., let us in on the secret. Who was that girl you had a date with the night of our first home basketball game???

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

A meeting was called, on Dec. 11, 1956 for the Lyons Senior Tri-Hi-Y. In order of business, there was a discussion on Christmas projects. It was decided to bring canned goods and old clothes for needy families.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y girls are taking orders for candies, cakes, and cookies, which will be sold on Saturdays after Christmas.

All members are urged to pay their dues.

If something goes wrong, it is more important to talk about who is going to fix, than who is to blame.

NOTES FOR NOSEY

Sandra B. has a little lamb. Its face is red as could be. Everywhere that Sandra goes her lamb is sure to be. Lamb—Phil P. !!!

Carol C. enjoys visiting the City Pharmacy lately. Could she be looking for George F.? How about it Carol????

To Sara S., Jerry S. looks like a knight in shining armor. Where's your suit of armor Jerry????

Earl C. has been fishing for love and has thrown his line for Linda N. Wonder if she'll bite????

Geraldine C. has eyes for Vidalia nowadays and also has a certain little black haired freshman.

Is it Jimmy C. or Sonny G. for Olivia D. She is in swirls over both of them. Who will win this game????

JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y

The Junior Tri-Hi-Y has formed several committees for the purpose of improving their club. The chairman are as follows:

Program Committee
Jean Phillips
Worship Committee
Peg y Jordan
Project Committee
Ronnie Smith
Membership

Sherrie Thompson

Our Christmas project is filling a box for some needy family. Girls, please don't forget to bring your contribution. The deadling is Friday, December 21. Let's help make this Christmas a happy one for some needy family.

Bill: "That girl in the red dress doesn't seem very intelligent!"

Will: "I know. She hasn't paid any attention to me either."

Two camels were walking in the desert. One camel said to another "I don't care what humans say—I'm thirsty."

TOPS IN POPS

Here are the tunes we find in the top ten around the country and here in Lyons. Would you rank them in this order?

1. Singing The Blues
2. Love Me Tender
3. Green Door
4. Just Walking in The Rain
5. True Love
6. Blue Berryhill
7. Cindy, Oh Cindy
8. Hay, Jealous Lover
9. Friendly Persuasion
10. -Honky Tonk

THE HARD WAY

Slippery ice, very thin, pretty girl tumbles in.
Saw a boy on the bank,
gave a shriek as she sank.
Boy on bank heard her shout,
jumped right in and pulled her out.
Now he's hers, very nice,
but first she had to break the ice.

FACTS

Size isn't the only difference between a flea and an elephant. An elephant can have fleas, but a flea can't have elephants.

The only thing you can occupy without paying rent is your skin.

QUIZ KIDS

- Lolly: "Did you mark the place where the fishing is good?"
Jolly: "Yes, I put an X on the side of the boat."
Lolly: "Silly! What if we should take the wrong boat next time?"

FASHIONS & FADS

LATEST LYONS ORIGINALS

We have now entered our first winter month. Although the days are not quite so cold, we are going farther into "old man winter's house." With us, we would like to take some of these following fashions we have seen during the past three weeks at school.

First, in the spotlight is Sandra C. Did you see that cute little black and white corduroy boat-neck blouse she wore Monday with that flaring corduroy skirt? Wasn't it smart?

Jean P. was wearing a pretty gold skirt and sweater combination at the basketball game Tuesday night.

It seems that boat-necksweaters are becoming more and more popular. Robbie K. was wearing a pretty hunter green one Tuesday. Her skirt was a slim apple green wool.

I notice that car coats are becoming more popular in Lyons High. I think I'll buy one. Also, there are collars of pique, angora, and beady esembles which are all becoming popular.

"See you next month. In the meantime, have a safe Christmas and be around to wear those new clothes from Santa."

AMNESIA VICTIM

There was a student who returned three books to the library six months overdue. The books titles were: STOP FORGETTING! USE YOUR HEAD! and HOW TO REMEMBER.

Compromise is but the sacrifice of one right or good in the hope of retaining another—too often ending in the loss of both.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUMAN RELATIONS

1. THOU SHALT LOVE PEOPLE, NOT JUST USE THEM.
The greatest thing in the world is a person. The greatest thing about a person is his motive and the greatest motive is love.
2. THOU SHALT DEVELOP THY UNDERSTANDING.
"If every man's care were written on his brow, how many would our pity share, who bear our envy now."
3. THOU SHALT COMPLIMENT MORE THAN CRITICIZE.
You had better cover your neighbor's fault with a cloak of charity. You may need a circus tent to cover your own.
4. THOU SHALT NOT ARGUE.
It's no use to win the argument and lose the people. Beware of the attitude which say, "In matters controversial, my attitude is fine. I always see two points of view—the one that is wrong and mine."
5. THOU SHALT NOT GET ANGRY.
If you are right, you don't need to. If you are wrong, you can't afford to.
6. THOU SHALT BE KIND.
You had better be kind to the people you meet on the way up. They are the same ones you meet on the way down. It's nice to be important, but it's important to be nice.
7. THOU SHALT HAVE A SENSE OF HUMOR.
A sense of humor is to a man what springs are to a wagon—it saves him alot of jolts.
8. THOU SHALT SMILE.
No man is ever fully dressed until he has a smile on his face. "Powder your face with sunshine; put on a great big smile. Make up your eyes with laughter; folks will be laughing with you in a little while. Whistle a tune of gladness; gloom never was worth while. The future's brighter, when hearts are lighter." So smile, smile, smile.
9. THOU SHALT PRACTICE WHAT THOU PREACHEST.
One example is worth one thousand arguments.
10. THOU SHALT GO TO SCHOOL TO THE HEADMASTER OF THE UNIVERSE, THE MASTER OF MAN: THE SECRETARY OF HUMAN RELATIONS--NAMELY, JESUS CHRIST.
He is the greatest leader of men the world has ever known.

FIRST ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CONCERT

GUESS WHO?

On Thursday night, December 13, the Lyons High School Band and Chorus presented their first annual Christmas Concert. The first half of the program told the story of Christmas in Song, and the second half was devoted to modern day Christmas carols, such as "Jingle Bells", and "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town". A highlight of the program was the arrival of Santa Claus, who furnished all of the children with candy.

Afterwards, the members of the band and chorus had a reception in the lunchroom.

I'm sure you have guessed who this loved and admired teacher is. Why it is none other than Mrs. Brogdon, our homemaking teacher!

FLASH!!!!!!! FLASH!!!!!!!

Semester exams will be given during the week of January 7-11, 1957. Keep this statement in mind, and do a lot of studying. A good slogan for us right now is "Be prepared"!!!! It's much better to study as the assignments are given, rather than wait until exams, and then cram. "Crammed knowledge is not learned knowledge".

UNPREDICTABLE

Police Chief: "The thief escaped? I thought you had the exits guarded."
Policeman: "I did, but he went out the entrance."

CHOOSE YE THIS DAY WHOM YE WILL SERVE

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| FASCISM | If a man had two cows, they would shoot the man and take the cows. |
| COMMUNISM | If a man had two cows, the government would take the cows, make you milk them, and they would give you some milk. |
| SOCIALISM | If a man had two cows, the government would then receive the milk and distribute it equally. |
| NEW DEALISM | If a man had two cows, the government would buy the milk and pour it down the drain. |
| CAPITALISM | If a man had two cows, he would sell one cow and buy a bull. |
| CHRISTIAN CAPITALISM | He would then give milk to his starving neighbors. |

SMART STUDENT

Teacher: (demonstrating bad effects of alcohol) "I'm putting this worm in water. See how it swims about? Now, I'll put it in alcohol. See, it immediately crumbles and dies. (Turning to student in front seat) "Joe, what does that prove?"
 Joe: (Thinking seriously a minute) "It proves if you have worms you should drink alcohol."

DAFFYNISION

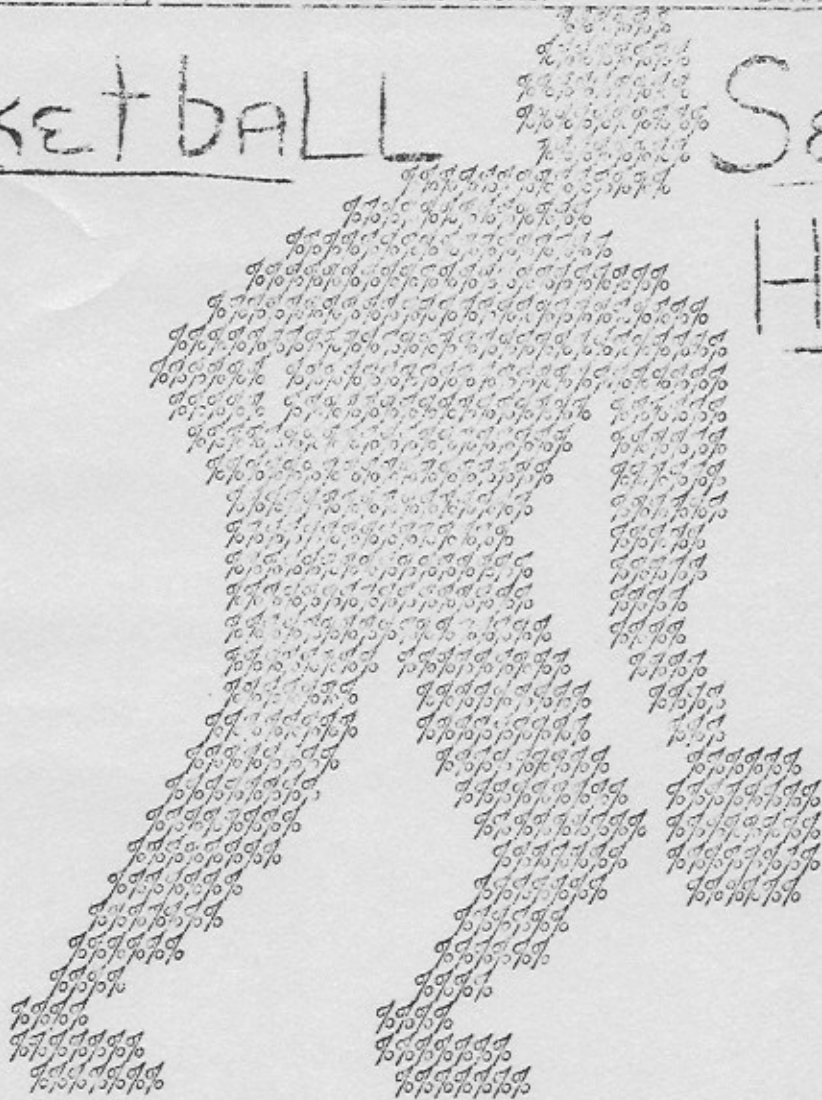

Skunk: Streamed-line kitty with a fluid drive.
 Flapjack Sitter: The only person who can't lie down on the job.
 Nag: A woman with no horse sense.
 Smart Mosquito: One that can pass a screen test.
 Counterfeiter: One who proves that it's not always right to imitate a good example.

A good thing to remember is that there is always going to be a tomorrow as well as a today and a yesterday.

Basketball Season is Here!

Basketball has gotten underway here in Lyons. The two games that have been played have not been impressive. However, they did prove that we have a fine group of girls and boys that are improving steadily.

Several of the members of the boys' team have been playing football and have just recently joined the squad. We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate these boys on their football success and to welcome them into the basketball spotlight. We are assured of some mighty fine basketball games in the future.

We, the student body, can do our part by attending these games and showing these boys and girls that we are behind them. Let's all support the team.
