CONGRATULATIONS DEBATE TEAM

Congratulations to the debate team! Even though they did not win the region, they had four points, which will add to our literary rating.

Mrs. Deen acted as coach and worked very hard.

Fred Brogdon and Kay Dickerson, the negative team, debated Metter in Metter and received one vote. Sandra Brown and Sandra Clark the affirmative team debated Glenville here and received three votes.

The subject of the debate was "Foreign Aid".

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

The Student Council has been in charge of the records that have been played in the lunchroom during the lunch period. We have tried to choose records that were better suited to the lunch hour.

Each morning except Monday and Friday, a member of the Students Council gives the devotional thoughts and prayer over our public address system. The teachers and school in general seem very appreciative of this and it has also been a learning experience for each of us.

We have launched a clean-up campaign and we urge each of you to help us clean up our school and keep it so. Remember about putting coco-cola bottles into racks and our paper and trash into waste baskets because we are depending on you.

Plans are now in progress where by our school clubs will be responsible for our chapel programs. We believe this will create much interest and variety and would be something to look forward to each Friday.

The Junior Class held a beauty contest for "Miss Lyons High of 1958" here in the High School Auditorium Thursday night, January 23. There were 37 contestants and each contestant was sponsored by a Lyons business establishment.

Sharrie Thompson, an 11th grader sponsored by the Rural Gas Company was crowned "Miss Lyons Hi". Jean Phillips, also an 11th grader, placed second. Florence Randall, a 12th grader, placed third.

A beautician, a home economics teacher, and a postmaster from Metter served as judges.

The Junior Class would like to express their appreciation to all contestants and faculty members who helped to make the contest a great success.

ONE ACT PLAY

The One-Act Play, directed by Misses Phillips and Bailey, did a great job. Although we did not place in the contest, we, the Lyons Roar Staff, think the play was terrific. The title of this play was "The Farmer's Daughter" and the characters were:

Pa MacDougal
 Roger Gay
 Ma MacDougal
 Annie Jo Kennedy
 Sally MacDougal
 Florence Randall
 Willie Singletree
 Charles Parker
 Benjamin J. Slick
 Jack Todd

Abe Lincoln Said—

I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives; I like to see a man live so that his place will be proud of him.

YOU AND THE FUTURE

Are you planning on a college education? Perhaps you have thought, "Can I afford to have a college education?" However, the question is, can you afford not to? Living is highly complicated in today's modern work and is becoming more so day by day. Mechanical inventions have replaced much of the hand labor and simple jobs formerly done by humans. Thus, there is less and less demand for persons to do such work and more and more demand for men and women with knowledge and leadership ability.

Because of the increasing population and the increasing numbers of people seeking a college education, the college door, so to speak is closing. Inadequate numbers of teachers, buildings, and other facilities add to the problem. This is why it is so necessary for a high school student, if he wants to further his education, to begin planning early. By getting information about various colleges and careers, and choosing one before high school graduation, he has a far better chance of succeeding.

Today there is an average of slightly more than three out of ten of our youth of college age enrolled in our colleges and universities. This enrollment is expected to double by 1967, and this will still be only about half of the top quarter in ability. The rest of precious talent is going to waste. This is a danger to the security of the United States, as has been proved by Russia's recent development of the Sputnik.

I urge you, fellow high school students, to plan to attend college not only for your own good, but for the good and future of our Nation.

Editor,
Judy Anne Dolamore

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that at the age of:

- 17 Joan of Arc liberated Reims
- 18 Victoria became Queen of England
- 19 Schubert composed "The Erl-king"
- 20 Nathan Hale volunteered for his mission
- 21 Marco Polo reached China
- 22 Marconi was granted first patent on wireless telegraph
- 23 Newton discovered the law of gravitation
- 28 Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin
- 29 Watt invented the steam engine
- 30 Alexander was conquering the then-known world
- 41 Columbus discovered the New World
- 57 Washington became President
- 75 Einstein published his field theory

You see? It can be done at any age!

NEW YEARS

Did you make any New Years resolutions? Here are some that would be ideal for this year:

- 1. Attend school more regularly
- 2. Spend more time studying
- 3. Be more friendly and considerate of others
- 4. Always be on time
- 5. Attend Sunday School and Church regularly
- 6. Have more respect for teachers and principal
- 7. Pay attention in class—you learn a lot more
- 8. Be neat at all times

—Ruth Wilson

- 7. Why Don't they Understand
- 8. All the Way
- 9. Great Balls of Fire
- 10. The Stroll

FAD'N FASHION

Hi fellow students!

These are your fashion editors, bringing you up to date on the latest fads and fashions of Lyons High School.

The cold days we have been having have definitely been the cause of the various colors of head shawls which are very popular among the girls.

Many of the girls have been wearing new out-fits since Christmas. Among these new are Kay D. with the pretty Jantzen matching gold skirt and sweater. Another fabulous outfit was worn by Sandra B., a red plaid skirt with a charcoal background, and a matching sweater.

For the boys it seems as if the new football jackets have caught the eye of everyone (especially the girls) Also different colors of V-neck sweaters are still popular with ivy league shirts and pants.

George F. wore an attractive red and black corduroy shirt, which certainly set off those brown eyes. (Right, girls???) Jack T. has been wearing a pretty gray plaid shirt which looks good with his gray pants.

Must close now. Be sure and look for the latest fads and fashions in our next issue.

LIBRARY NEWS

Mrs. Price, our librarian, is delighted that we now have four student assistants in the library. They are Betty Jean Collins, Elizabeth Powell, Julia Graham, and Margaret Harris. Recently, some of these assistants joined the State Student Assistant Association and hope to go to Georgia Association at Rock Eagle on April 11, 12, and 13.

TIME

Time is immortal,
And it does fly
Past the portal;
Then on and by.

Time is uncensured
Alone by cares,
And is not weathered
By tools and tares.

Time passes on
Through all seasons,
Then touches the dawn—
It gives no reasons.

Time then blows
On through the centuries
Where, no one knows
Except on, and on it hurries.

Love is oceans of emotions surrounded by expanses of expense.

THE SNOOPER

"Mighty Lak A Rose" thinks Charles P. of Joyce K. How about it, Charles?????

Dickey T. and Jann J. still seem to be close friends-----very close friends!!

Seems like Tommy H. has done it again. Johnnie A. is really nice. Say, Tommy???

Barry J. really digs these girls nowadays. How about it Olivia????? Yvonne?????

Woopsy does it says Bill T. especially since his girl is wearing a Glennville jacket. Better get busy, Bill!!

Caroll C. is still yearning for Ray M. Ray snap out of the "girl strick"!!

Jerry S. must get awfully tired of totin' that torch for Ronnie S. Could this feeling be mutual???

Seems like Jesslyn G. has broken up for the final time with George Y. Could Vidalia be her interest??

FIVE FACTS WORTH REMEMBERING

1. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.
2. You cannot help the strong men by tearing down big men.
3. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred.
4. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence.
5. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves.**

KEYHOLE CAPERS

Whose "58" Cadillac has been seen sitting in front of Ava's house? Take a little advice Ava, hide the car and fellow or someone will steal them away from you!!

Emily Z. is still on the prowl. Better take cover, boys.

Jean P. is really jolly and happy these days. Is it because of a certain "Youngblood"???

Judy Anne D. has a new boyfriend I wonder who it could be? Speak up Judy!!

How is the romance between Peg J. and Harold M. coming along?? Tell us, Peggy.

What is this about Audrey W.'s old flame from Reidsville cutting in on her new "feller" C.O.?

Seems 'as' if W. Kight has lost her touch with boys from Collins and Reidsville. What happened, W.?

Faye J. and K. M. haven't tied the knot yet. Why are you two waiting, Faye???

Grace M. can always find some reason to go into Page's Dept. store. Could it be Howard S. or does she really wear all those new shoes???

Mary S. W. and Barbara S. seem to spend a lot of time thinking about Reidsville. Is it the "City or Lewis and Robert"???

The Freshman child so shy and coy; admirably states at the sophomore boy; but the sophomore boy, head in a whirl, loves that pretty junior girl.

But the junior girl in dashing sedan; boldly pursues that senior man. But the senior man, handsome and wild, secretly loves the freshman child.

CLEAN SPEECH CAMPAIGN
(Sponsored by Tri-Hi-Y)

ADVANTAGES OF A DIRTY STORY

- It advertises one's own ignorance.
- It displays one's lack of a sense of decency.
- It indicates the state of one's inner character.
- It exhibits the nature of one's inner soul.
- It shows one's better self is being suppressed.
- It typifies the meagerness of one's resources of entertainment.
- It proclaims the coarseness of one's own ideas of humor.
- It tells of the inadequacy of one's means of expression.
- It reveals the depth of defilement one has already reached.
- It proves to one's friends how greatly they may be disappointed in him.
- It stultifies the testimony of those who have said he was a good fellow.
- It hangs vulgar pictures on the inner chamber of the imagination of other men from which they can never escape.
- It disgusts men of finer sensibilities who care for the clean and wholesome things of life.
- It nauseates good men who love fun but hate dirt.
- It dishonors one's parents and one's wife and one's friends and one's home and one's business and one's God.
- It proves nothing but one's own unworthiness.
- It accomplishes nothing but one's own undoing.
- It convinces others that one is a good man NOT to do business with.

Nashville YMCA

Then there was the man who took his Great Dane to a veterinarian. "Doctor," he said, "you've got to do something. My dog does nothing but chase sport cars."

"Well, that's only natural," replied the vet. "Most dogs chase cars."

"Yes," the man agreed. "But mine catches them and buries them in the back yard."

Voice back: "No, this is the funeral parlor."

Sam got a dollar too much in his pay envelope one week, but did not say anything. The next week the paymaster discovered the error and deducted a dollar.

"Say," Sam said, "I'm a dollar short."

"Well," said the paymaster, "You didn't complain last week when you were a dollar over."

"Yes, but a guy can overlook one mistake. When it happens a second time, it's time to complain."

Waiter: "Pardon me, lady, your husband just slid under the table."

Lady: "That wasn't my husband, that's him coming in the door."

GAS UP WITH A SENIOR

Last deer season a fellow in Tennessee hit the dirt when a high powered slug whined over his head. He lay tight until a red-coated female rushed up and asked breathlessly if he was hurt.

"Really, I'm awfully sorry," she admitted. "I thought you were my husband!"

A Georgia man reached his 100th birthday. A wise-cracking youth congratulated him and said: "Do you think you'll make another hundred?"

"Well," said the centenarian, "I'm a lot stronger than I was 100 years ago."

Young hunter: (boasting) "Do you know that if you carry a white stick, a tiger won't attack you?"

Old hunter: (bored) "True, it all depends on how fast you carry it."

"Does your husband live up to the promises he made during his courtship days?"

"Always. In those days, he said he wasn't good enough for me and he's been proving it ever since."

A cute girl elevator operator, exposed for the umpteenth time to the remark, "I suppose you have your ups and down," snapped back, "It's not the ups and downs that bothers me. It's the jerks!"

A florist phoned a printer, ordering a ribbon for a funeral wreath. "I want it to read 'Rest in Peace' on both sides," he said.

When the ribbon was delivered it read: "Rest in peace on both sides."
