EDITORIAL

SCIENCE CLUB

Just five and thirty years ago I walked alone on earth, that callous, carefree creature, A bachelor from birth, No thrill of promission, No tingling of the spine Foreshadowed the appearance of my only valentine.

I had no thought of courtship At that far-distant date; One girl was like another, So why, then, concentrate?

One pearl was like another to this self-centered swine who was surfeited with sameness and knew no valentine.

Just five and thirty years ago I danced with mind astray, and suddenly the sameness was forever swept away. I hardly heard the music, I couldn't taste the wine, For, lovely as a legend, I saw my valentine.

Oh, lovely as a legend, or a Silver birch in spring, And haunting as the twilight song, That hidden thrushes sing! How I elbowed through my fellows As they stood in penguin line! How I dodged among the dancers As I sought my valentine!

The orchestra played waltzes, Blank faces swirled about; I have no foot for waltzes, So we sat the waltzes out. Came the tunes of Kern and Gershwin, But I liked the terrace fine; Till the band played "Good Night Ladies" I wooed my valentine.

Just five and thirty years ago I walked the earth alone, the shortest five and thirty years THAT earth has ever known. Young love is well remembered, But why long for old lang syne when tonight she is beside me, My beloved valentine, My fairest valentine, Through five and thirty precious years, My own true valentine.

FASHION FADS OF '65

With Winter in full swing, the number one eye catcher on the fashion scene would be a pair of Lady Levis matched up with one of those adorable tablecloth check shirts. To add spice to this are those three-quarter length suede coats along with those lovely sweater and skirt, sets to match in those gorgeous melons, lemons, pink and aquas. To add the finishing touch in footwear, we have boots of various shapes, heights, colors and leathers along with popular flats with small stacked heels. Still holding their own are our Weejuns, and black and white oxfords.

FTA

The Future Teachers chapter of Lyons High School took an active part in the State Convention which was held at Rock Eagle on February 4, 5, 6. Attending this convention were some 750 members of Future Teachers groups through-out the state. There were 625 girls and 125 boys. Each group was accompanied by its sponsor.

Many people connected with teaching at the state level were present. Those attending the convention were Carol Kight, Marilyn Smith, Sue McCumbers, Betty Hall Delaine Mayes, Susan Smith, Gail Simmons, Laverne Harn, Annette Poole, Pam Wright, and Mrs. A. B. Davis, sponsor of the local chapter.

The Lyons Chapter carried out a Get-Acquainted Treasure Hunt to help each student to get to know other students attending. As each person registered, he was given a mimeographed sheet with instructions to find twenty-eight items. All the items dealt with things of interest to high school and college students, such items as finding a boy and a girl going steady and both attending the convention, a girl with textured nose, a boy with a blue set in his class ring, A prize was given to the girl and to the boy first turning in all these items.

GOSSIP

Winston P. seems to be very happy. Is it because Faye R. still goes to the Piggly Wiggly.

From the way Janice H. tells things about her and Wayne P., they're really serious couple. Better watch out things can happen.

Could we be right when we say that tomorrow Sharon H. is to hear wedding bells? We would like to send our congratulations out to Tommy C. and Sharon H. on their wedding date, Sat. the 13th.

We heard that Kathy S. had a date with Wendell W. last Sat. night. Are we right??

Just think Delaine M. It's only 5 more months until June when the Bell will toll out that merry sound for you and James P.

A little birdie told us that Marilyn S. has a class ring at home. Why don't you wear it Marilyn??

Richard B. was seen last Fri. night driving Cherry B's Cadillac, with Nancy T. right under him. Could this mean anything???

Sue W., who is Chuck D.?? We've heard so much about him yet no one has seen him. Come on show us the real thing...

Nancy W. has seen better writing days. Seems that since she put on that 5lb. ring she can hardly write.

Joan W. and David M. hear wedding bells so we heard. Hope you two have a happy future..

Linda O. and Mike D. have been seen frequently in the back seat of a yellow Mustang. Could this be for real??

Everything seems to be doing fine between Linda Mc. and Don G. these days. Don and Linda are content to shoot pool all the time.

Seems that Diane L. has Carlos M. hooked and wrapped around her little finger. Are we right Diane?? Hold on!!!!

We heard that Patsy W. is singing "Blue Navy, Blue". Hang on Patsy, Charles L. will be home before long.

Linda J. must be planning big things.. We see that she has a cute diamond on her third finger, left hand. Could the lucky boy be Jimmy R.?

Karen J. and Gary W. seem to be everywhere together. Now that's what I call togetherness.

We have been seeing Peggy W. riding alot with Tim T. Could this lead to anything serious???

Do these boys go to Swainsboro on Sunday afternoon for "fast" cars or "fast" girls? Tell us Dennis Mc. and Johnny G???

David T. has been seen driving from Lyons to Mt. Vernon a lot lately. Who is over there that interest you David??

Looks like Edward J. has finally won the heart of Francis "Bootsie" D.

Who is this Harvisten A. has her eye on? Could it be Donnie M.'s??
We've heard that this could possible change in the Future. Are we right Harvisten???

We heard that before Larry "Sam" W. went into the Air Force, He and Dale
L. were getting along great. Are we right in saying that he is writing you Dale???

Molly H. really has something to Cheer about. Seems as though all her attention is turned toward Wayne P. at the Ballgames. Good Luck Molly!!!

Glenda M. and J.A.N. are still lovy-dovy. We'd like to ask Glenda one thing. Isn't he kinda cold after working in the ice plant???

We're not trying to be match-makers, but don't you think that Jayne S. and Richard B. would make a cute couple?? We want a student vote on this

Dorothy N. B. seems to enjoy Swainsboro lately. Who's the "Gang-banger" you have lined up now Dorothy???

Roslyn C.!! What was your shoe doing on the building the other day???
We all know you kick high but that high???

There's a rumor around school that Dan G. and Betty Carol M. are going strong. We hope that there's nothing to this because we know a cute little girl(Linda B.) that would really like to go with you..

Kathleen J. told us one day that she was going back to work with the Georgia Power Co. did you get on Kathleen? (Literally speaking of course.)

Linda C. is about to run the wheels off that falcon. Won't somebody "Pick" her "Up" and cut out some of this nonsense???

Michael L. just can't make up his mind which girl to go after. Won't some of you girls help him make up his mind??

Larry G. had better watch out. He's been seen messing around with Susan C. and Shawnee M. Martha Ann's going to be mighty bad about this Larry!!!!

Congratulations Patsy B. We heard that you and Larry C. were about to go steady... anything to this????

Sherry S. sure gets starry-eyed when the name Larry C. is mentioned..
What is the meaning of this Sherry???

Patricia S. and Kyle D. are such a sweet couple don't you think so students? But I guess that everyone has their own opinion right??

Patricia M. was seen with Skeeter T. at the brazier, and I guarantee you they weren't drinking a milkshake!!!

Judy D. can't seem to make up her mind over "Gator" or that Mobley boy from Mt. Vernon. Come on Judy which one are you going to pick??

Carolyn E. and Coogan W. haven't been seen together lately. What's the matter Carolyn, dosen't he satisfy you???

Frieda Mc. dosen't have any special one to cheer for at the ballgames.
Come on boys we just can't have this...
