Mr. J. B. Partin

DEDICATION

And when my work on earth is done,
And my new work in heaven begun,
May I forget the crown I've won,
While thinking still of OTHERS

From "Others"
By Chs. P. Meigs

These words befit the life of our beloved County School Superintendent, whose service, love, devotion, and untiring efforts for the youth of our schools will long be remembered.

We, the Lyons High Student Body, do dedicate this annual in memory of Mr. Partin, our friend and benefactor, whose inspiration shall be a guiding light to each of us throughout the years to come.

Last Will And Testament

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1957, being in sane mind, do bequeath to our successors: First, to the "clever" Juniors, we leave our ability to get out of the right class at the right time. Second, to the "intelligent" Juniors, we leave all the responsibilities and worries that go along with being a Senior. Other than these that we will as a class, we individually leave our personal assets as follows:

I, Joe Alexander, do leave my love for studying to Fred Alexander. I, Pat Beecher, do leave my ability to make friends to Barbara Stephens in hopes that she will use it. I, Billy Benton, do leave my ability to stay in trouble in and out of school to Frederick Alexander. I, Eugene Braddy, do leave my position at the Jitney Jungle to Jerry Scott. I, Jimmy Braddy, do leave my position on the basketball bench to Bill Carter. I, Carolyn Bradham, do leave my red "windwaves" to my lunchroom pals. I, Harry Brown, do leave my desire for night life and love for the opposite sex to Jimmy Collins. I, Buster Burnette, do leave about fifty pounds of my weight and six inches of my height to Earl Clifton. I, Hugh Clark, do leave my curly hair to Lawren Holt. I, Shelby Jean Cook, do leave my quiet manners to Sue Higgs. I, Eugenia Culberson, do leave my loneliness during my Senior year to Florence Randall. I, Benny Davis, do leave my quietness to Charles Mooney. I, Blackie Drew, do leave my ability to get a special invitation to the office to Raymond Landrum.

I, Tom Fanning, do leave my fine scholastic ability to Marion Franklin, who is in dire need of it. I, Lynette Fulford, do leave my ability to catch friends of the opposite sex to Peggy Harden in hopes that she can keep them as I couldn't. I, Marion George, do leave my sideburns to Fred Brogdon. I, Gloria Gordy, do leave my love for sports to Linda Branch. I, Vernon Gordy, do leave to James McLain my wife and kids. I, Sonny Graham, do leave my ability to play right end to George, (Egg) Fant, scratches and all! I, Edward Grier, do leave my bashfulness to Jerry Craft. I, C. J. Hall, do leave my great love for machinery and railroads to any mechanical-minded boy. I, Olivia Higgs, do leave my fancy hair styles to Geraldine Cook in hopes that she will prosper by them. I, Judy Horne, do leave my happiness during my high school days to Pat Dowdy. I, Alton James, do leave my ability to receive 15-yard penalties to my good ole cuz, Kermit NeeSmith. I, Pat Johnson, do leave my ability to pass the time away to Delores Holland. I, Angus Jordan, do leave my ambition for greatness in life to Jack Todd.

I, Bobby Kemp, do leave my handle "Haywire" to anyone stupid enough to have it. I, Billy Kramer, do leave my ability to type to Big Tank Thompson. I, Ellen Lively, do leave my temper to Judy Anne Dolamore. I, Betty Maddox, do leave my loneliness during my Senior Year to Linda Dennis. I, Maurice Miot, do leave my appreciation for fine music to Charles Wilson. I, Don Monroe, do not leave anything because I need everything I have. I, Carolyn Moore, do leave my love for everyone. I, Wayne Morris, do leave my ability to get along with my classmates to Ray Joyner. I, Julia Mosley, do leave my bravery to get up in front of the class to my sister, Jo. I, Doris Price, do leave my serious thoughts, which are few, to Ava Bullock. I, Edward Rowland, do leave my ability to do the wrong thing at the right time to Elwyn Grier. I, Lavonne Stanley, do leave my troubles of the past years to Elizabeth Powell.

I, Martha Stanley, do leave my chance at freedom to Linda Beecher. I, Yvonne Stephens, do leave my naturally curly hair to June Outler. I, Ralph Stewart, do leave my ability to learn to Donnie Ray Hutcheson in hopes that he will use it. I, Wilbur Stewart, do leave my height to Don Kight. I, Pat Wiggins, do leave my position at Jitney Jungle to Roger NeeSmith. I, Clara Williamson, do leave my good times during my Senior Year to Becky Yarborough. I, Metalis Wilson, do leave my freckles to Mary Sue Cooper in hopes that she will have better luck with them than I have had. I, A. B. Rauton, do leave my will power to finish high school to all the members of the Junior Class. I, Patsy Williamson, do leave and am "doggone" proud of it.

Prophecy

May-1967

The first meeting of the '57 Graduating Class of Lyons High School was held this month. This is the first time in ten years that these alumni have had a chance to get together. Miss Lavonne Stanley, is now a very dependable private secretary to that oil tycoon, Billy Kramer. A. B. Rauton now owns the largest used car lot at South Thompson, Georgia. Mrs. James Grimes, the former Betty Maddox, is the proud mother of three delightful children. The new owner of the Coleman Bar Q Ranch is Edward Grier, of course! Lynette Fulford, famous Broadway star, flew all the way from China, where she was honeymooning with her latest catch. Edward Rowland operates his own garage and is content just to remain the best grease monkey in town. Wayne Morris is the best livestock farmer in Georgia. Carolyn Bradham is chief operator for Southern Bell Company in Macon. Olivia Higgs is private secretary to a very handsome man and was escorted to the meeting by him.

Eugene Braddy, Admiral of the U. S. Navy, is retiring in the near future and also getting married. One of the highlights of the evening was when the former Eugenia Culberson and her husband, Ben Jack McDilda, and their four lovely children arrived. After years of hard work, Gloria Gordy, is private secretary to the owner of Goodyear Rubber Co. in Atlanta. Ralph Stewart is a candidate for presidency this year after lots of golfing, hunting, and fishing. Martha Stanley has achieved the position of secretary to the South's leading lawyer, Maurice Miot. Mrs. Charles Dent, the former Julia Mosley, must have a well-paying position at the Macon Bank by driving a '67 Cadillac. Benny Davis, new owner of Ford Co. and Marion George, America's most famous test-driver, were together. Hugh Clark is a great baseball player in a major league.

We were thrilled to see Fleet Adm. Blackie Drew, of the South Pacific, Maj. Gen Joe Alexander of Fort Stewart, and Captain Don Monroe of Company A of the National Guard. Shelby Cook is a famous hair stylist for MGM studios. Ellen Lively wife of Maurice Jackson surely looks good after years of marriage. Bobby Kemp showed up wearing his Air Force Blue. Pat Wiggins owns and operates the largest super market in the state. Vernon Gordy is the hottest test pilot that ever flew a supersonic jet. Yvonne Stephens is a cute, pert secretary to the best dentist in Lyons, Tom Fanning. Metalis Wilson flew in from Paris, where she is Dior's favorite model. Wilbur Stewart has just received his discharge from the Navy and is to be a local enforcement officer. Angus Jordan is fast becoming a success as a Capitol recording artist. Pat Johnson is Lyons' smallest and cutest nurse. Sonny Graham is now banker at the Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta. C. J. Hall is content to be just a famous engineer at the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Office. Buster Burnette is the best mortician in Toombs County. Jimmy Braddy is a professor at a scientific college up north. Billy Benton is a football coach at Georgia Tech. Harry Brown is a movie idol, and his date for the evening was Pat Beecher, Georgia's fashion designer leader. Carolyn Moore is a very happy Home Economics instructor at the University of Georgia. Judy Horne is happy to be the wife of a very successful insurance salesman, Alton James. And this brings everyone up to date with the happenings of everybody else.
