FACULTY

It is with pride that I view the accomplishment of this school term. It is a pleasure to observe students who are busily acquiring the fundamentals of learning and communications and who are, at the same time, developing healthy minds and bodies.

Speaking both as principal and as a former teacher, I would like to say to the Senior class: The future is yours and you alone can decide what you will make of it. It is my hope that the training you have received at Lyons High School will prepare you to meet the challenges of tomorrow. However, graduation from high school does not mean an end to your education. Instead one should continuously evaluate responsibilities, talents, and skills for self-realization, and be aware that cultural and spiritual attainment is as endless as the process of education.

To the "Mastiff Staff," I would like to say "Thanks" for a job well done. You have put many hours of hard work into this annual and I am sure it will be enjoyed for years to come.

RICHARD BROWN MRS. PAUL HOUSE

Richard Brown was named the STAR STUDENT of Lyons High School for the year 1965-66. This honor is based on the academic grades for the first three years in high school and the first semester of the twelfth grade. The winner must have made the highest score on the College Entrance Examination.

Richard chose Mrs. Paul House, his first grade teacher, as the teacher who contributed the most to his education.

Richard highlighted his senior year as President of the Senior Class. He has also been an active member of the Hi-Y Club, Key Club, I Club, Beta Club, and Student Council. He has an outstanding athletic record in football and baseball.

Richard plans to enter the Georgia Institute of Technology where he will major in Industrial Engineering.

OUTSTANDING DCT STUDENT

ETHEL SLOCUM

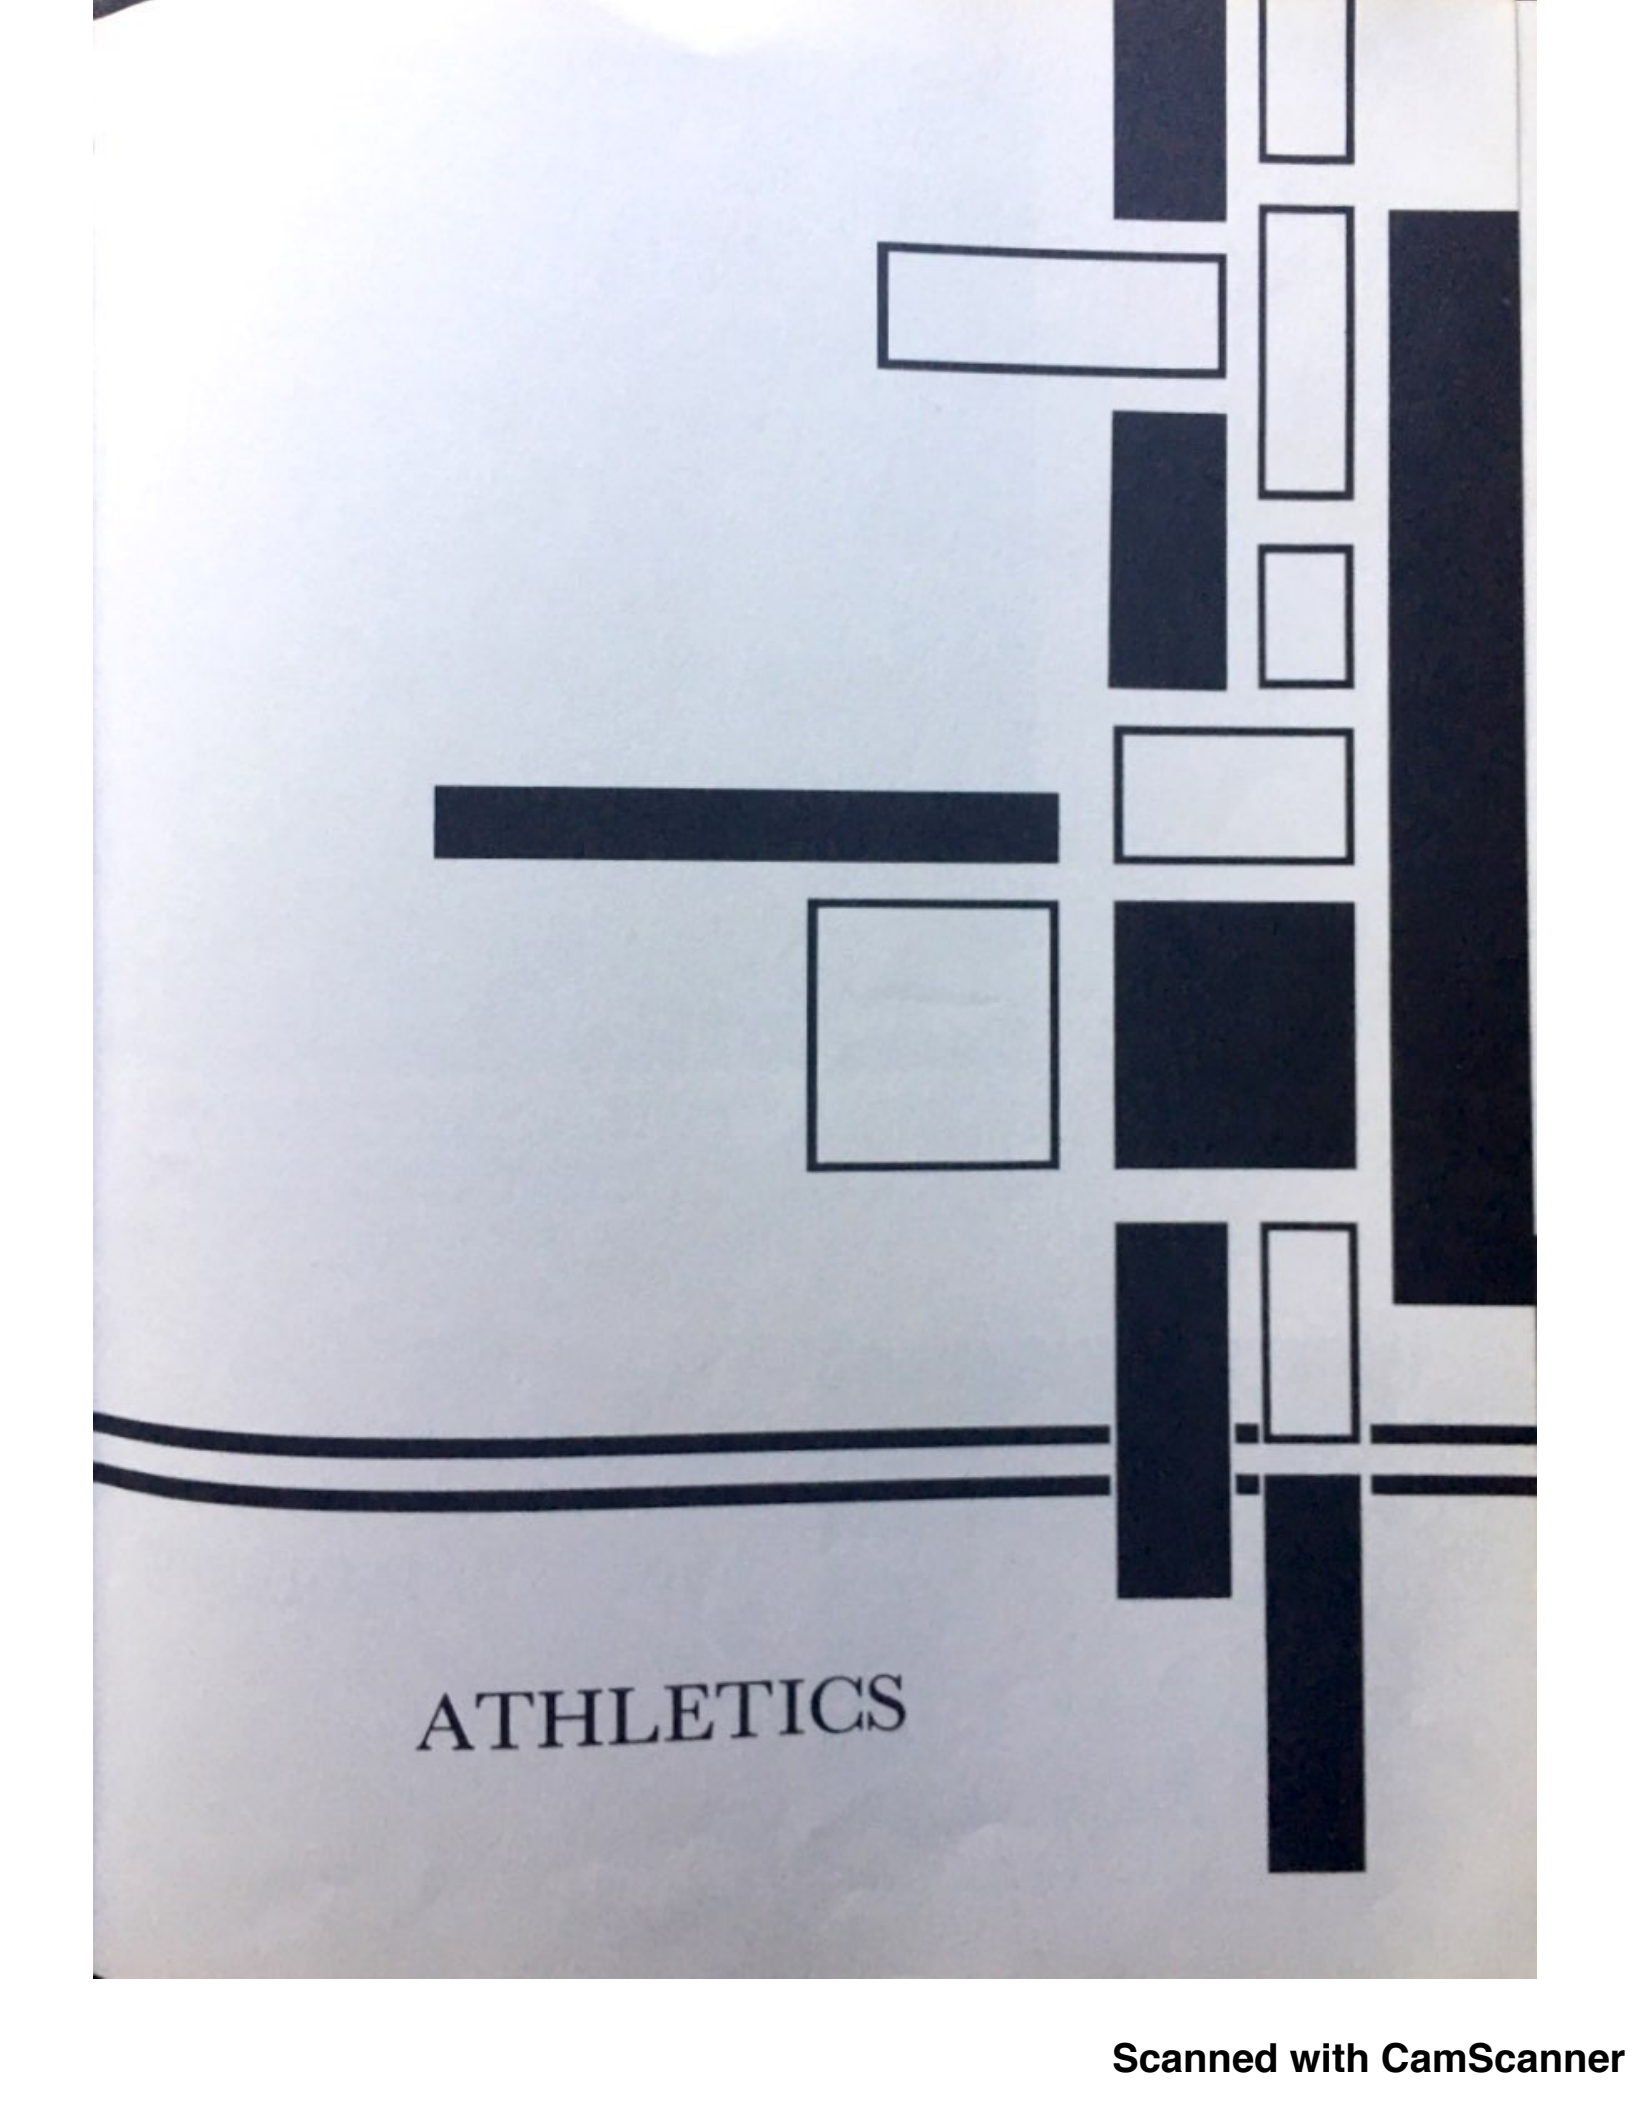

Upon examining the quality of work on the job and in class, I am pleased to announce Ethel Slocum, waitress at the Dairy Park, as the 1965-1966 outstanding DCT student.

Ethel has made great strides in fulfilling the requirement of the DCT program. She accepts readily the DCT creed.

She believes: In the American Way of Life; In education for all; In fair play--the essence of the Golden Rule; And that the greatest happiness is derived from a JOB WELL DONE.

OUTSTANDING DCT STUDENT

ETHEL SLOCUM

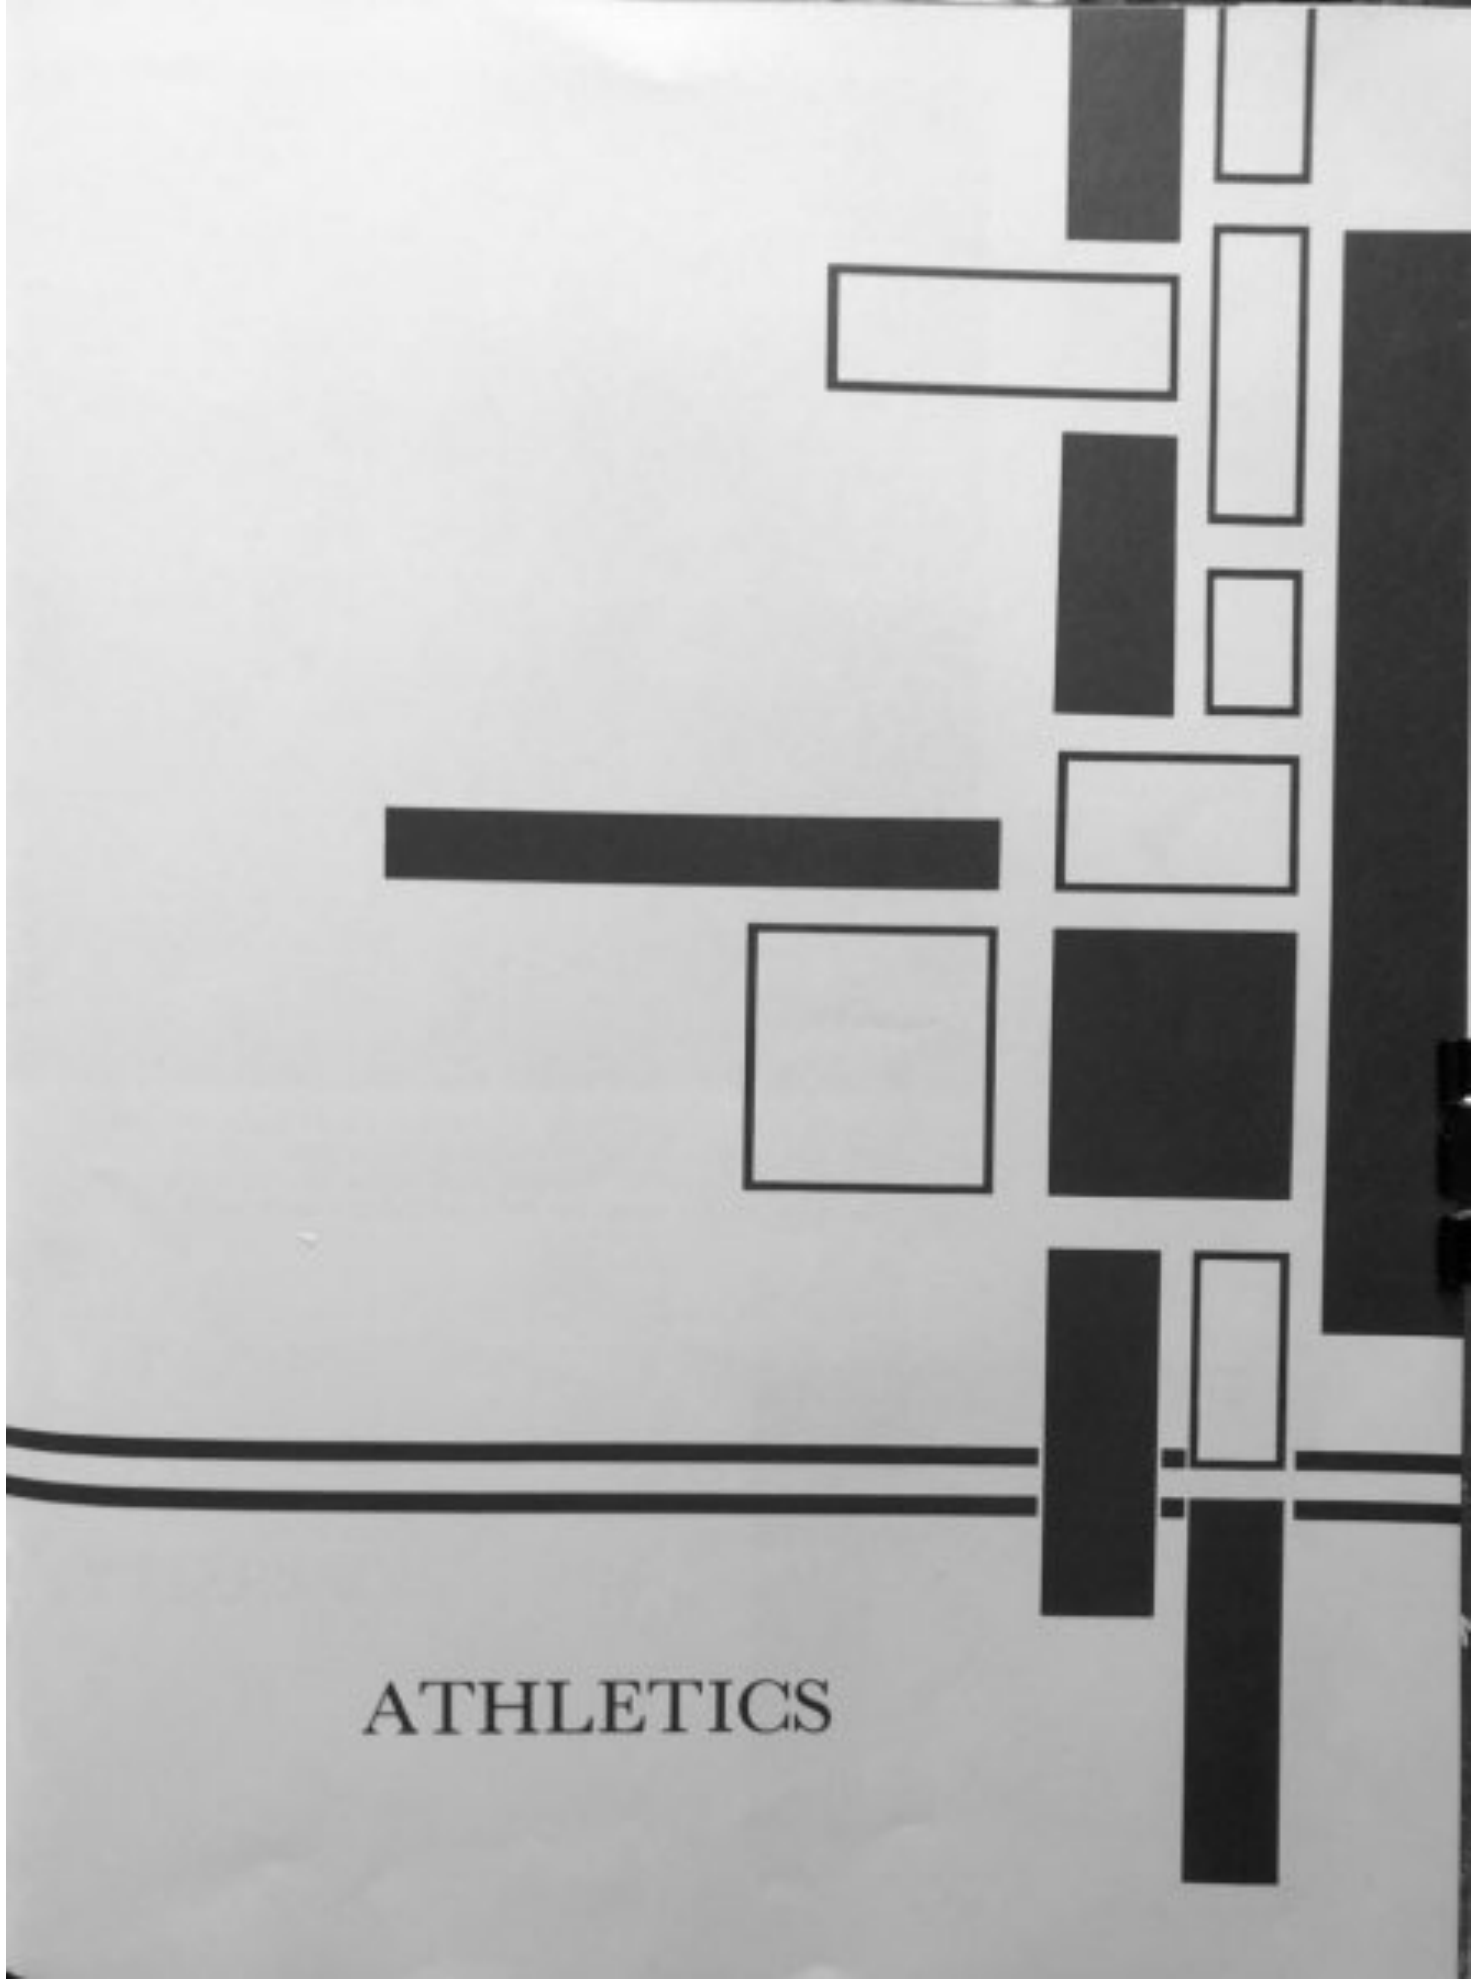

Upon examining the quality of work on the job and in class, I am pleased to announce Ethel Slocum, waitress at the Dairy Park, as the 1965-1966 outstanding DCT student.

Ethel has made great strides in fulfilling the requirement of the DCT program. She accepts readily the DCT creed.

She believes: In the American Way of Life; In education for all; In fair play--the essence of the Golden Rule; And that the greatest happiness is derived from a JOB WELL DONE.

DCT Coordinator

Powell Collins

ALMA MATER

Our Strong Bonds Can Ne'r Be Broken Formed In Lyons High.
For Surpassing Wealth Unspoken Sealed By Friendship's Tie.

Our School Days At Best Are Passing Gliding Swiftly By.
Let Us Pledge In Word And Deed Our Love For Lyons High.

Chorus:

Alma Mater, Alma Mater, Deep Graven On Each Heart
Shall Be Found Unwavering True When We From Lyons Shall Part.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

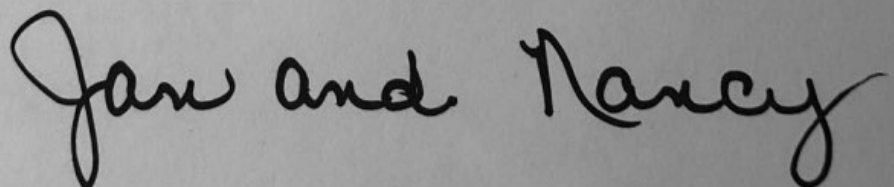

We the editors of the 1965-1966 Mastiff would like to dedicate our efforts on this yearbook to our senior class. We have tried to include memories which we felt you would cherish in years to come. This book is not just another year of our high school days, but our last. Its pages are composed of only a few of the many experiences we have had this year. This book is not the end, but only the beginning of our future lives.

The events presented in this book have meant a great deal to each of us. The administration, faculty and others have contributed much to the development of our minds and bodies. We hope our future lives will bring honor to those who have meant so much to us.

We wish to thank all of those who have contributed to this year's Mastiff. Without your help, this book would not have been possible. Also we would like to apologize for any errors that have been made.

We hope to each senior the best life has to offer and may your life always be filled with happiness.

Sincerely,
