ADVICE TO JUNIORS

Dwayne Aaron-Don't be disappointed next year when your becoming Seniors is not accompanied by hailing bugles and fireworks.

Phil Aaron-Your key to graduation, when asked a question, say the old words "I didn't do it!"

Herbert Akins-Volunteer for your Senior play.

Jacky Amerson-Do more than I did.

David Anderson-Never take anything harder than eight grade math!

Linda Barrow-Make the best of your Senior year because it doesn't last long.

Herbert Bowen-Watch out for Mr. Sapp and Mr. Clifton.

Mike Bowen-Study hard to get out of Psychology and English next year.

Madie Braddy-Take care of LHS next year. I guarantee you, there is no place like it.

Gloria Branch-Have a good time.

Linda Brogden-Study hard, have fun, but make your last year count.

Dale Clark-Play around the last year, that is if your smart.

Cathie Clifton-Don't try to do too many thing at once.

Roslyn Clifton-Enjoy it while you can.

Mildred Copeland-Make the most out of next year and hope you pass.

Mike Dickerson-Don't find out who Nat Carter is!

Faye Dickey-Have fun.

Joe Dickey-Quit!

Judy Dismuke-Enjoy every minute of your Senior year because it lasts only 9 months and that's about 73,800 minutes of fun!

Cathy Drake-Take Bookkeeping and Shorthand

Carolyn Edenfield-Hang in there and graduate!

Van Edenfield-Don't do it.

Phyllis Foskey-Use your head and graduate.

Ray Frost-Take care of LHS and make better use of it than I have. Study hard, make good grades, and graduate with flying colors.

Robert Garrett-Keep straight and don't get into any trouble.

Dan Gray-Don't take physics

Rita Grimes-Have all the fun you can;

Ivey Hadden-Live it up.

Lavera Hara-Enjoy your last year.

Mollie Hester-Rave on!!

Janice Holland-Have fun and live it up, because you don't pass through this world but once.

Linda Hooks-Study harder than you have been studying.

Pam Hunschrey-Live every day as if it were your last!

Gloria Kavakoa-Get in good with Mr. J. H. Collins and study.

Della Knight-Be very sure who's advice you listen to!

Virginia Knight-Have a good time.

Mary Alice Krolic-Take it easy!

Daryl Lewis-Quit!

Leonard Lowery-Don't take anything harder than 8th grade Math.

Sue Lynn-Study now-Play later!

Lluana Martin-study hard

Dawn Mayo-Pay your class dues on time, so you can have a graduation.

Alice McCulloch-Enjoy it because this is your last year.

Lindy McDonald-It is nice to have B. F. Goodrich as a friend.

Mary McLendon-Have fun!

Nancy McRae-Keep slaggin' and maybe one day they will let you out.

Mike Mulling-Don't take physics!

Brain Odum-Study and live freely.

Jerry Osborne-Watch out for some of the teachers.

Tim Page-Don't spin wheels in Vidalia because of that Big Man called "Nat Carter"

Cornelia Palmer-Study hard and be careful of everything you say.

Buddy Paradise-Try hard as possible, then if you can't make it, Cheat!

Don Patterson- I hope that each Junior, who will be Seniors for next year, will take their senior year very serious and work hard. Best of luck Juniors!!

Annette Poole-Don't let it get you down.

Pamela Priester-Enjoy it while you can for tommorrow it may be gone.

Patricia Shuman-Get it all.

Sherry Schunck-Quit before you become Seniors!

Kathy Sikes-Have a blast!

Gail Simmons-Have all the fun you can.

Johnny Smith-Don't get into any trouble with any of your teachers. If you do Mr. Sapp, Mr. Clifton and Mr. Collins will know about it before you can turn around and they can sure swing "the board of education."

Tommy Smith-Don't do it!

David Stewart-Work harder!

David L. Sikes-Make the most of your senior year!

Becky Trapnell-Study hard, enjoy it!

William Watson-Have fun!

Patsy Wilds-Watch out for all those teachers or they will never let you out!

Finta Williamson-Take DCT but don't give Mr. Powell Collins as much trouble as Sherry, Pat and I did.

Pete Wright-I need some advice, so I can't give any.

Dale Yarbrough-Look out for all the teachers!

Jackie Yawn-Don't Graduate.

Ronnie Youmans-Work hard.

Rhett Zorn-Have fun before next year.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Alvin Dwayne Aaron, bequeath my rusted slide rule to George Page.

I, Phil Aaron, do leave my talent as a bum leader in the klan to the bums, Carlos, Randy, John, George and ole "X" bum Mike.

I, Hubert Akins, do leave my manly physique to John Travis.

I, Jacky Amerson, want to leave my ability to go to the office to anybody that can go as many times as I did, and leave my J. S. to Wayne Underwood.

I, David Anderson, leave my golden notes to Gene Wren.

I, Linda Barrow, do leave hoping to do better somewhere else.

I, Herbert Bowen, do leave my brains and good looks to anyone who can use them.

I, Mike Bowen, do leave my curly hair to Ronnie Kemp.

I, Madie Braddy, do leave all my typing abilities to anyone who is crazy enough to want them.

I, Gloria Branch, do leave, and I hope I never have to come back.

I, Linda Brogdon, do leave my good times being a cheerleader and the hard work of the Student Council to Cynthia Wilkes in hopes she will enjoy them as much as I did.

I, Dale Clark, leave this school to any unlucky person.

I, Cathie Clifton, do leave to Lynda Oliver my drawing board and T-square, etc. in hopes she will continue her marvelous drawing career.

I, Paulun Clifton, do leave my ability to get involved in the school during high school to Roddy, hoping he has more sense than I did.

I, Mildred Copeland, do leave my desk in Psychology to Lois and hope that she makes better than I do.

I, Mike Dickerson, leave all my good times to Danny (Boar) Krulic.

I, Faye Dickey, do leave L.H.S., Mr. Collins, and all those fine teachers to the undergraduates.

I, Judy Dismuke, do leave my muscles to Wayne Underwood so he will be able to make an all-state center next year.

I, Cathie Dicks, do leave my ability to play the piano to Mary Ellen Dicks.

I, Carolyn Edenfield, do leave all my running, sweating, and getting injured to all of the Basketball team at the gym 5th period.

I, Van Edenfield, do leave my ability to do history to my good friend, "P. H." Toole in hopes he will pass this year.

I, Phyllis Foskey, do leave Gail M. and Debbie R. rolling money in the office.

- I, Ray Frost, do leave my poor grades to someone who can use them and make better ones next year.
- I, Robert Garrett, leave my great football uniforms to Kenny (Bruiser) Bryant. He must wear my pants with pride and uphold the standards of a Bulldog.
- I, Rita Grimes, do leave my great, great shorthand speed to anyone who is stupid enough to need it.
- I, Ivey Hadden, do hope that I can leave.
- I, LaVern Harn, would like to leave my Physics book to anyone who would take it.
- I, Maffie Ford Hester, do bequeath my much frequented seat in Mr. Collins' office to Lynda Oliver with full knowledge that it shan't get cold. To Diane Tomlin, I leave my "interest" in the Georgia Power Company.
- I, Janice Holland, do leave, hoping that Mr. Toler will succeed with his typewriters.
- I, Linda Hooks, leave dear old L.H.S. to my sister, Lois, in hopes that she will like it better than I did.
- I, Pam Humphrey, do leave Charles and Wayne--Thank Goodness!
- I, Gloria Kavakos, do leave my ability to make up excuses, and my excuses, to go to Vidalia to Cynthia Wilkes, because she may want to use them.
- I, Della Kight, do leave only the building, for I plan to take my memories with me.
- I, Virginia Kight, do leave the school to everybody else.
- I, Mary Alice Krulic, do leave my seat in the bathroom to Gail Wilson so she won't have to sit on the trash can.
- I, Daryl Lewis, do leave my intelligence to my brother, Keith, who needs some "common sense."
- I, Leonard Lowery, do leave to my little brother my place in the Lyons High Redcoat Band (That ain't much). To Joel J. I leave my luck.
- I, Carol Sue Lynn, do leave F.H.A. to the girls who love it.
- I, Lluana Martin, don't leave anything.
- I, Dawn Mayo, do leave my mechanical drawing grades to Ronnie Collins.
- I, Alice McCullough, do leave this place to anyone who wants it.
- I, Lindy McDonald, hereby leave all my things here at Lyons and shore ain't coming back to get them.
- I, Mary Melendon, do leave my ability to stay in trouble to Melba.
